The 2010 Census of the United States of America proved what we all have come to know in recent years, that we have become a true mosaic of cultures, languages, religions, foods and social values from around the world. The 21st century has brought some fundamental global changes. The developing economies are on the way to challenging the traditional social, political & economic powers.

The Multicultural Studies Specialist program is designed to benefit a wide range of Americans. From teachers & social workers to professionals such as lawyers, doctors, non-profit community organizations, to those involved in international trade, foreign students advisors, organizers of cultural exchanges, study abroad programs organizers and those who would like to work, teach or volunteer abroad .

The career as a Multicultural Specialist is challenging and very rewarding. This is a new but exciting field and there is no shortage of jobs for graduates of Multicultural Studies Specialists here in America or around the world.
